If you're anything like me, you probably feel overwhelmed by all the changes you'd like to see in your life—especially around the New Year, when change is the "thing" to do. When that happens, I pray King David's prayer, "Restore to me the joy of your salvation and grant me a willing spirit, to sustain me" (Psalm 51:12).

As this New Year begins, resolve to recapture that joy. Vary what you normally do for your time alone with God. Decide on a new topic for Bible study. Begin a fresh journal.

If you make some changes but still feel stale, ask God to show you the reason. Is there sin in your life you're ignoring? A wrong relationship, self-pity, jealousy? The writer to the Hebrews encourages us to "throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles, and let us run with perseverance the race marked out for us. Let us fix our eyes on Jesus" (12: 1-2). That's one resolution you can't afford to break!

Pastor & Mrs. Bacino want to wish everyone a healthy, wholesome, happy, safe and spiritual New Year.
