FATHER'S DAY did not become a national holiday until 1972. President Richard Nixon's administration declared the third Sunday in June a day to recognize and honor the role of fathers in our society. In 1909, Sonora Smart Dodd of Spokane, Washington, convinced the Spokane Ministerial Association and the YMCA to set aside a Sunday in June to celebrate fathers. Thus, on June 19, 1910, the first Father's Day events commenced.

~~~~~
Pastor wants to greet and encourage all members as they leave church. Please be mindful not to holdup the reception line.
